ALEXANDRIA LIBRARY.—We are requested by the President of the Alexandria Library Company to announce that the Library will be closed during the present week, in order to allow time for transferring the books and shelves to the new room in German's building. The work of removing the books and furnishing the hall has been entrusted to a committee composed not only of live men, but men of great taste in such matters, and the very composition of the committee is a guarantee that the future home of the Library will be both neat and attractive. This work is being pushed forward with vigor, and it is hoped that the hall will be ready by Monday, April 4th, when the Library will be reopened. Let all of our citizens, both male and female, who feel any interest in the prosperity of this old institution—and all ought to feel an interest in it—visit the room and verify the above statement, and then, if they have not already done so, let them at once become stockholders. We are also requested to acknowledge the receipt at the Library of "the English and Foreign Trade Gazette," from Liverpool, and of "the memorial addresses on William Pitt Fessenden," from Hon. Lewis McKenzie, our worthy representative in Congress. Again we urge upon our citizens the propriety of contributing to the Library such of their stock of novels and other light literature as they can spare. Any help in this direction will be thankfully received. We are pleased to see that the Library will soon be on its feet again, and we trust our people will give it such support in the future as will enable it to maintain its position.

VIRGINIA PEAT COMPANY.—The Secretary of the Commonwealth has received for record an act of incorporation granted by Judge Lyander Hill, of this Judicial Circuit, to the "Virginia Peat Company." The purpose of the company is the mining of peat in the Dismal Swamp in the county of Norfolk and manufacturing the same into fuel, or any other articles to which it may be adapted. The capital stock of the company is to be not less than one hundred thousand dollars, nor more than two millions of dollars, divided into shares of fifty dollars each, and for the purpose of mining the company may hold one thousand acres of land. The chief place of business of the company will be in Norfolk, and the principal office in Alexandria. The incorporators of the company have elected the following parties officers for the first year: President, Gilbert S. Miner; Secretary, Clinton Lloyd; Directors—James B. Lyons, Fredrick R. Windsor, Clinton Lloyd, Westley Willoughby, Gilbert S. Miner and Charles Whittlesley.

QUARTERLY COURT.—The commencement of the April or quarterly term of the County Court for this county is set for Monday next, the 4th proximo, with Presiding Justices Lewis McKenzie, and associate Justices Moore and S. B. Corbett, on the bench. On Friday last Justices J. L. Dyson and W. L. Penn drew the following jurors to serve during the term: John Bladen, George Johnston, Thomas F. Murphy, William Mountjoy, Jacob Bailey, Albert Munsey, John Hyson, S. R. Johnston, John Gowings, William Allen, R. D. White, Charles Rudd, Frank Spinks, John R. Jackson, Stephen Collins, E. E. Morrison, James Bonitz, W. S. Jenks, J. E. Doulass, John Clark, H. Elliott, F. W. Ashby, Robert Harrison, James McLean, Thomas Mills, Samuel Houston, William Davis and Thomas Nalls. In addition to the regular jurors, two or three venires have been summoned to try special causes.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—The locomotive Harrisonburg, attached to a material train on the O. & A. M. R. R., exploded at eleven o'clock this morning, at a wood pile in Skinner's cut, between Fairfax and Burkes stations, and killed the engineer, William H. King, and severely but not seriously wounded, the conductor, James F. Peyton, and slightly scalded a track hand named Murphy. A train that went to the relief of the wreck, returned here at four o'clock with the killed and wounded.

INSTALLATION.—The following officers of Mount Vernon Circle No. 1, B. U. (H. F.) C. of A. were installed at Phoenix Hall on Saturday night last: C. W., W. E. Remington; C. J., Hugh Latham; C. F. Thomas Chaucer; H. S. K., G. W. Jones; H. T., R. Owens; H. R., J. H. Soper; W. D., J. Wells; W. N., Andrew Brent; H. W., W. T. Javens. Exalted Washington, W. W. Sherwood.

CHURCH SERVICES YESTERDAY.—The storm prevailing yesterday morning prevented a large attendance at the churches—the usual services, however, were held. At night also the threatening appearance of the weather deterred many from going out, but the congregations were much larger than in the morning. There was a baptizing at the Baptist church at night.

FRESH FISH.—The arrivals of fresh fish at Fishtown continue to increase slowly as the season advances. A load from the shore at Eagle's Nest this morning sold at the following rates: Shad $33 per hundred; herring $22 per 1000; large rock from $1.05 to $1.75, bunch rock 28 cents; perch 13 to 16 cents, and eel and mullets from 11 to 19 cents.

ODD FELLOWS.—The order of Odd Fellows in Washington are making great preparations for celebrating the fifty-first anniversary of the Order, which occurs on the 26th of April next. The exercises on the occasion are expected to be very interesting.

NEW MUSIC.—From the music store of Mr. V. Becker, No. 149 King street, we received this morning "Shew Fly," "Just once more" and "A Little Bird told me so."

POLICE REPORT—MAYOR'S OFFICE.—There were no cases of a criminal character at the Mayor's office this morning.

MAGISTRATE'S OFFICE.—George Franklin, colored, committed to jail last week for stealing the iron fastenings from a wagon belonging to Mr. John Slater, was reexamined and discharged.

WATCH REPORT.—Night dark and cloudy. There were fewer people on the streets than usual even on bad nights. There were no disturbances, no arrests, and no lodgers at the watch house.

THE STORM.—The storm of Saturday night and yesterday was one of the severest ever experienced in this latitude. The sky clouded up Saturday evening, but the rain did not commence falling until about a quarter before twelve that night, at which time, also, the wind, which had been blowing a stiff breeze from the northeast for some time freshened and continued to increase in violence until just before day light, when it reached the proportions of a gale, maintained them for some hours, and then gradually fell away, and about noon, when the rain ceased, changed its quarter, veering around to the southwest. The rain and wind together made the tides in the Potomac unusually high, and the entire portion of the city east of Union street from Fishtown to the lower ship yard was submerged, the water invading the warehouses but doing no damage, as everything on the first floors had been removed in anticipation of the flood. Persons going to or coming from Washington had to be transported between the ferry boats and Union street in omnibuses, as the water was two feet deep at the lower end of King street. The restaurants near the ferry boats' wharf were also flooded, but preparations had been made for the reception of the water. Some of the wharves were injured, including those at Fishtown, and the sloop Belvidere, Captain Johnson, lying at pier No. 5, was damaged considerably by being driven against that wharf. It is reported that the fishing shores on the Virginia side of the river suffered serious injuries, the seine boats at Ashton's and Newton's being stove to pieces, and those at Beasley's, Cawood's and Guy's badly damaged, in addition to the injuries inflicted upon the houses, capstans, &c. About twenty-five barrels of unlabeled lime stored on the wharf of the steamer Columbia caught fire when the water reached them, and the flames were communicated to the shed which sheltered them, but the fire was discovered at once and extinguished. During the severity of the gale the tin roof of the residence of R. H. Miller, esq., on Washington street, was blown off, chimneys of the house of Messrs. Edmond Lloyd, on Queen street, and Jefferson Tracey, on King street, and of St. Paul's Church vestry room, blown down, a large tree near the corner of Pitt and Queen street torn up, and the fence on Union street near Fishtown, and the fences in other parts of the city prostrated. The foundation of the house in progress of erection on Fairfax street, near the A. L. & H. R. R., was washed in, the north window of the theatre building was blown in, and the rain beat with such force that the roof of the Hydraulic engine house was penetrated, and the hand some ceiling of the engine room marred and disfigured. Hunting Creek bridge was also washed away. The steamer Columbia, due here from Baltimore yesterday evening, did not arrive until four o'clock this evening, having been detained by the storm.

LOCAL BREVITIES.—The alarm of fire between seven and eight o'clock on Saturday night last, which brought out a portion of the fire department, was caused by the burning of a pile of brushwood near Four Mile run. A disturbance occurred among some boys near the corner of St. Asaph and Wolfe streets yesterday evening, but it was quieted before any of those engaged were hurt. Complaint has been lodged at the Mayor's office against certain green grocers for selling fresh fish, and the parties complained of have been informed that such sales are illegal, and that those making them will be punished according to the ordinances of the corporation. Fast driving through the streets of the city is not allowed by law, and the police were on the look out yesterday evening for a young man engaged in that sport. An attempt was made on Friday night last to set fire to the framed building in the rear of the cabinet warehouses of Mr. J. H. DeVaughn, on King street.

LAND SALE.—Messrs. Brawner & Co., Land Agents, of this city, sold on Saturday last, the farm of Moses Brewer, esq., near Guilford depot, A. L. & H. R. R., containing 160 acres, and a portion of the stock, to John Bryden, esq., of Oneida county, N. Y., for $6,500.

Among the literary ladies at present sojourning in this city are Mrs. Spofford and Glad Hamilton. The latter is the guest of Speaker Blaine.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 28—3 p. m. CONGRESS.

In the Senate Mr. Johnston presented a number of memorials from Virginians, praying for the removal of their disabilities. There was some discussion by Messrs. Drake, Trumbull and Thurman upon an enquiry by Mr. Drake concerning the delay in a report upon the Texas admission bill by the Judiciary Committee.

In the House of Representatives Mr. McKenzie presented a bill in relation to granting public lands to the Trans Continental Railroad, which it is proposed to run to the Pacific by way of El Paso.

Polysamy.

SALT LAKE, March 28.—A large meeting of merchants and professional men was held last night to prepare a memorial to the United States Senate praying for the expurgation of those sections of Mr. Callom's bill which punish by fine and imprisonment a continuance of patriarchal family relations.

Numerous speakers argued that a liberal policy towards the offenders of the past would be of advantage to the Government of the whole country, and that such action would arrest polysamy in the future. Messrs. Robertson, Hupey, Kalina, Walker and Hillster, non-Mormons, were appointed a committee to draft memorials, and telegraph to the President of the Senate. The interest on this subject is intense.

If the Senate passes the House bill in its present shape, it is asserted that the Territory will become a desolation.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Responsibilities of the Liver.

The liver has a very important part to perform in the animal economy. Its function is two fold. The fluid which it secretes tempers the blood and regulates the bowels, and upon the quantity and quality of the secretion depends, in a great degree, the adaptation of the blood to the requirements of the system and the due removal of the refuse matter which remains in the intestines after the work of digestion has been accomplished.

One of the principal uses of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is to tone and control this somewhat unruly organ. The antibilious properties of the preparation are scarcely secondary to its virtues as a stomachic. Its operation upon the liver is not violent like that of mercury, but gradual and gentle. Instead of creating a sudden tumult in that sensitive gland, it regulates its action by degrees. Hence, it is a safe remedy for bilious disorders, while mercury, being a tremendous excitant, is not. The more naturally and quietly a diseased organ can be restored to its normal condition the better, and it is the peculiar property of this harmless vegetable alterative to reinforce and regulate without exciting or convulsing.

The success which has attended its use as a remedy for affections of the liver is proverbial. Persons of a bilious habit who take it habitually as a protection against the attacks to which they are constitutionally liable, pronounce it the best liver tonic in existence. The symptoms of an approaching attack of biliousness can hardly be mistaken. A pain in the right side or under the shoulder blades, a saffroning of the whites of the eyes, sick headache, a feeling of drowsiness, loss of spirits, loss of appetite, constipation and general debility are among the usual indications of a morbid condition of the liver, and as soon as they appear the Bitters should be resorted to in order to ward off more serious consequences. mh 23-2w1w
